PETITIONING THE COURT

☐ To issue a warrant

☒ To issue a summons

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
-------------------------	--------------------------------

1

The offender has violated the supervision condition which states 'The defendant is to be confined to her residence for a period of 5 months commencing at the direction of the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall be required to be at this residence at all times except for approved absences for gainful employment, community service, religious services, medical care, educational or training programs and at other such times as may be specifically authorized by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall wear an electronic monitoring device and follow electronic monitoring procedures. The defendant shall permit the probation officer access to the residence at all times and maintain a telephone at the residence without any custom services or portable, cordless equipment. The defendant shall comply with any other specific conditions of home confinement as the probation officer requires. The defendant shall pay the costs of electronic monitoring, specifically $3.26 per day.'

The offender left home January 17, 2006 at 12:00pm or thereabouts and reported to the probation office at 1:30pm. Hassell left the office at 3:00pm and failed to return home. The releasee finally returned home at 9:21am, on January 20, 2006.

Essentially, Hassell violated his home confinement curfew by being unaccounted for since the evening of January 17, 2006.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
